

9.22---9.26 2016 The Palm

It is a long journey from China to Seychelles, but it is worthy of the tiredness when we set foot on this island. This is a poetic place, with beautiful sunshine, beach, wave, and a respectable captain.

We are enchanted by the quietness and peacefulness of Cerf island . we have been spent five days here with so much happiness. Every people here are kind and friendly. Even though communication is a small problem, mutual understanding makes everything easy and smooth.

This is our first honeymoon stop, Mahe will be our next stop. As a good beginning, we wish we can meet more nice people over there.

Goodbye!
